

Death of a Senior Royal Policy

On the death of a senior Royal family member Little Missenden PC wish to mark their respect during the period of mourning in the following ways:

- Image of Royal family member on the PC website, along with a black motif and letter from the Chairman.
- A letter of condolence sent to next of kin from LMPC.
- Footer on all email signatures as follows: Little Missenden Parish Council express their heartfelt condolences to the Royal Family on the death of [Senior Royal name].
- Two minutes silence at the start of the next Council meeting following the death.
- Postponement of the Council meeting if it falls within the mourning period (unless there is a time critical item that needs addressing on the agenda).
- LMPC will ask if the Church can arrange the following: Church service
- The flag flying protocols for death of a royal will be adhered to.
